Some memories of the trip:-

- Timothy - he got sick at the right time
- who drove to Kuantan without knowing where we were staying for the night
- Penny & Julie - on the way to Mersing, we were worried where they were at lunch time. We found out later - sleeping at the Merlin!!
- David Bock - he plans to buy a bicycle rack without owning a bike!
- do not make appointments with him for morning jogs!
- whose car was very popular (not because it is a Mercedes) but due to the availability of cold drinks
- Dew - does not believe in lubricating his gears (hope he lubricates when performing other 'activities')
- thinks a MTB is better than a road bike for long ride
- Volker - who started alone but ended up with a room for the first night, when Merlin was full ( not sure how well he slept, but gain a bonus dinner and breakfast)
- full support on the second day - bananas, water, no need to carry his backpack plus 'drafting partners'
- Michael - ask him for medical terms, names of trees, plants, fish, type of food, etc, etc, etc,
- John - can always be a bike mechanic
- loves to cycle topless
- takes 'showers' on the bike (to show others he was cycling hard!)
- found a better way to measure 6 inches when drafting another cyclist!
- Ben - whose knee is not as good as his collection abilities
- David Hoong - who used all available oil, cream (thought he used gear lubrication on his thighs) just to keep going
- needs to co-ordinate with his wife Ivy where she should stop for him (they have been married long enough!)
